To Whom It May Concern,

I, Toby Tumarkin, am proud to have been working with producer Michael Durkin and GFD Promotions for over seven years and consider him a trusted partner and producer of the very highest level.

In 2017, IMG Artists is proud to partner with him in presenting, Celtic Nights – Oceans of Hope, a production showcasing the epic history and folklore of Ireland and her Celtic cousins through songs, music and dance. We have no doubt that this will be a beautiful, cultural and educational production that audiences are sure to enjoy all over America.

We look forward to our continued collaboration with Michael and GFD Promotions.

Sincerely,

Toby Tumarkin
